

Famous Scientists

- Francesco Redi - proposed that maggots appeared on meat from flies laying eggs.
- Anton Van Leeuwenhoek
 - perfected the simple microscope.
- John Needham - in his experiment did not boil the gravy long enough to kill all the organisms.
- Lazzaro Spallanzani - proved that Needham did boil the gravy long enough and was able to kill the organisms.
- Louis Pasteur - discovered that diseases are caused by microorganisms entering the body.
- Aristotle - spontaneous generation.
- Watson and Crick - double helix

What is Science?

- Science is an organized way of using evidence to learn about the natural world.
- The Scientific Method is the process by which scientists propose problems, make hypothesis' and perform experiments to test these hypothesis'.